INFORMATION ON TIME LIMITS FOR ENTERING THE NATIONAL PHASE

The applicant is reminded that the "national phase" must be entered before each of the designated Offices indicated in the Notification of Receipt of Record Copy (Form PCT/IB/301) by paying national fees and furnishing translations, as prescribed by the applicable national laws.

The time limit for performing these procedural acts is 20 MONTHS from the priority date or, for those designated States which the applicant elects in a demand for international preliminary examination or in a later election, 30 MONTHS from the priority date, provided that the election is made before the expiration of 19 months from the priority date. Some designated (or elected) Offices have fixed time limits which expire even later than 20 or 30 months from the priority date. In other Offices an extension of time or grace period, in some cases upon payment of an additional fee, is available.

In addition to these procedural acts, the applicant may also have to comply with other special requirements applicable in certain Offices. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that the necessary steps to enter the national phase are taken in a timely fashion. Most designated Offices do not issue reminders to applicants in connection with the entry into the national phase.

For detailed information about the procedural acts to be performed to enter the national phase before each designated Office, the applicable time limits and possible extensions of time or grace periods, and any other requirements, see the relevant Chapters of Volume II of the PCT Applicant's Guide. Information about the requirements for filing a demand for international preliminary examination is set out in Chapter IX of Volume I of the PCT Applicant's Guide.

GR and ES became bound by PCT Chapter II on 7 September 1996 and 6 September 1997, respectively, and may, therefore, be elected in a demand or a later election filed on or after 7 September 1996 and 6 September 1997, respectively, regardless of the filing date of the international application. (See second paragraph above.)

Note that only an applicant who is a national or resident of a PCT Contracting State which is bound by Chapter II has the right to file a demand for international preliminary examination.

CONFIRMATION OF PRECAUTIONARY DESIGNATIONS

This notification lists only specific designations made under Rule 4.9(a) in the request. It is important to check that these designations are correct. Errors in designations can be corrected where precautionary designations have been made under Rule 4.9(b). The applicant is hereby reminded that any precautionary designations may be confirmed according to Rule 4.9(c) before the expiration of 15 months from the priority date. If it is not confirmed, it will automatically be regarded as withdrawn by the applicant. There will be no reminder and no invitation. Confirmation of a designation consists of the filing of a notice specifying the designated State concerned (with an indication of the kind of protection or treatment desired) and the payment of the designation and confirmation fees. Confirmation must reach the receiving Office within the 15-month time limit.

REQUIREMENTS REGARDING PRIORITY DOCUMENTS

For applicants who have not yet complied with the requirements regarding priority documents, the following is recalled.

Where the priority of an earlier national, regional or international application is claimed, the applicant must submit a copy of the said earlier application, certified by the authority with which it was filed ("the priority document") to the receiving Office (which will transmit it to the International Bureau) or directly to the International Bureau, before the expiration of 16 months from the priority date, provided that any such priority document may still be submitted to the International Bureau before that date of international publication of the international application, in which case that document will be considered to have been received by the International Bureau on the last day of the 16-month time limit (Rule 17.1(a)).

Where the priority document is issued by the receiving Office, the applicant may, instead of submitting the priority document, request the receiving Office to prepare and transmit the priority document to the International Bureau. Such request must be made before the expiration of the 16-month time limit and may be subjected by the receiving Office to the payment of a fee (Rule 17.1(b)).

If the priority document concerned is not submitted to the International Bureau or if the request to the receiving Office to prepare and transmit the priority document has not been made (and the corresponding fee, if any, paid) within the applicable time limit indicated under the preceding paragraphs, any designated State may disregard the priority claim, provided that no designated Office may disregard the priority claim concerned before giving the applicant an opportunity to furnish the priority document within a time limit which is reasonable under the circumstances.

Where several priorities are claimed, the priority date to be considered for the purposes of computing the 16-month time limit is the filing date of the earliest application whose priority is claimed.

United States Patent No. 5,729,525 (Ishida et al.) apparently relates to a two-layer optical disk where data blocks are stored in each of the two layers and where the data blocks are read in a manner that alternates sequentially between the two layers.

European Patent Application Publication No. 1 059 636 (Sako) apparently relates to a recording medium that has n recording regions in which n trains of sampled data items are recorded and a method and apparatus for recording n trains of data items.

European Patent Application Publication No. 0 890 948 (Kurado) apparently relates to a method which can prevent illegal copying of data from a multi-layer disk to a single-layer disk and in which a jump instruction to designate a next reading destination is recorded in at least one data block in a multi-layer recording medium.

European Patent Application Publication No. 0 884 904 (Fujiwara et al.) apparently relates to an apparatus which detects a moving vector by obtaining the differential between two video signals and which then encodes said differential signal.

Japanese Patent Application Publication No. 10112841 (Hiroshi) apparently relates to a digital moving picture disk which digitally converts a video signal of a moving picture, compresses said signal, and records it by encoding twice as many frames as the number of frames of a reproduced moving picture, alternating the encoding of frames onto two data recording layers.

European Patent Application Publication No. 0 762 397 (Yamakawa et al.) apparently relates to method and apparatus for playing back information from an optical multilayer disk with an optical pickup device by switching a focus error characteristic adapted to a first layer to a neutral focus error characteristic and then subsequently to a focus error characteristic adapted to a second layer.

European Patent Application Publication No. 0 751 517 (Sako et al.) apparently relates to a multi-layer medium for recording data in which encrypted data is recorded on a first record layer and encrypted key data, used for decoding said encrypted data, is recorded on a second record layer.

European Patent Application Publication No. 0 426 409 (Sato et al.) apparently relates to a multi-layered optical disk comprising a plurality of recording layers in which light is focused on one of the tracks of one of the layers to record or reproduce data, and in which each recording layer has an identification section storing an address of said recording layer.
